SKI CHALETS

OUR FAVOURITE RESTAURANTS IN THE THREE VALLEYS

RECOMMENDED BY F&P

For most of us, a skiing holiday isn't complete without good food in the chalet and out on the slopes. We don't believe that expensive food is necessarily good food. There is only one condition in our eyes, and that is quality.

As food lovers, over the past 15 years we have just about managed to eat our way round most of the restaurants the 3 Valleys has to offer, and it offers a lot! We have carefully selected the variety of restaurants below to save you the trouble of trial and error, as we're sure you are aware this can be a rather expensive and often disappointing exercise in the Three Valleys.

We have dedicated time and effort in personally researching these recommendations, purely for your benefit of course! For those that we can't recommend personally we have based our research on having a fantastic reputation.

We would advise booking restaurants for lunch especially at peak time and the chalet night off in advance. If you would like your Resort Manager to book a restaurant for you or you would like any advice, then please call or ask your host or chef.

Do remember that lots of the most popular restaurant run two sittings at lunch and on Wednesday evenings – 12:30 or 14:30, and then 19:00 or 21:00 – it's worth thinking about which sitting you prefer before booking.

PORTETTA,

COURCHEVEL 1650 - +33 (0) 4 79 08 01 47 🚗💳

Angela Hartnett has taken on the restaurant at this lovely hotel in Courchevel 1650. Sit on the terrace and soak up the sunshine and terrific views or cosy up in the restaurant and enjoy some Savoyard food with an Italian twist. The perfect spot for lunch in the sunshine, with some pretty amazing food to boot!

LA FRUITIERE, LA FOLIE DOUCE

SAULIRE EXPRESS MID-STATION MÉRIBEL – +33 (0) 4 79 00 58 31 🚗💳

Do you like to party? Then this is the place for you! With daily cabaret shows and a party on the piste that keeps going until the last lifts, La Fruitiere is a great place to start your après-ski fun. Tables outside are the ones to go for, especially on a sunny day for a front row seat to the show! The food is very good and we think definitely worth the extra few Euros. Even better are the magnums of rosé to wash it all down with!

LE BLANCHOT

MÉRIBEL ALTIPOUR – +33 (0) 4 79 00 55 78 🚗💳

Located at the top of Le Lapin run to Méribel Village, Le Blanchot is a pretty chalet-style restaurant with a great sun terrace. It serves elegant French food and is a great lunch spot for beginners.

LA BOUITTE

ST MARTIN DE BELLEVILLE – +33 (0) 4 79 08 96 77 🚗💳

3 Michelin star restaurant in the picturesque village of St Martin de Belleville – this is mountain dining at its best – but your wallet may be slightly lighter when you leave! While away an afternoon and indulge in some of the finest food out there. Ideal for bad weather days!

LA SOUCOUPE

COURCHEVEL CHENUS 2240 – +33 (0) 4 79 08 21 34 🚗💳

Great for an indulgent lunch with a superb view down the Courchevel Valley. Alternatively makes a great bolt hole in bad weather conditions with a roaring fire and a cracking wine list. It is Courchevel though so prepare yourself for the bill.

CAP HORNE

COURCHEVEL 1850 – +33 (0) 4 79 08 33

Located at the bottom of the Suisse piste, this restaurant certainly has a reputation as the 'place to be' in Courchevel. It's a popular place for a long lunch, often somewhat debaucherous, with the DJ playing in the piste-basher on the terrace and scantily-clad singers parading up and down. It's definitely worth a visit even just for a hot chocolate (again, watch out for prices) or a spot of people- watching. However, be aware that quality of food and service is often inconsistent.

LE CHALET DES PIERRES

COURCHEVEL 1850 - +33 (0) 4 79 08 18 61

Another 'place to be seen' in Courchevel, this is a huge chalet with a vast terrace in a sun-trap on the edge of the Verdons piste. The food is good, but the prices are steep and service can be a little hit and miss. However, if you're prepared to splash out then the sushi platter is well worth it, and if you want entertainment whilst eating, you'll certainly get it here.

CHALET DE LA MARINE

VAL THORENS – + 33 (0) 4 79 00 11 90

This is an absolutely cracking spot for a destination lunch! This is a must-visit if you are venturing to the Val Thorens valley and love a long lunch on a glorious terrace with stunning views. The menu offers a wide range of dishes from Savoie to beautiful salads. It is ever increasing in popularity so booking is essential.
